According to The Wall Street Journal, Bible sales are up 22% this year over last year at this time, prompting the WSJ to declare it "a golden age of Bible publishing." Faithwire.com's report on this story notes that one bookstore manager told the WSJ "she's seeing many first-time buyers come in looking for the Scriptures," explaining that they "are on a quest for 'hope.'" Specifically, the story suggests, young people are searching for "answers to some of life's tough questions." The Christian Broadcasting Network also reports that Bible app engagements have surged in 2024 with the words "prayer" and "peace" among the top in-app search terms. Scripture Reading

Galations 4: 1-7 NKJV

⁴ Now I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, does not differ at all from a slave, though he is master of all,

² but is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by the father.

³ Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world.

⁴ But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law,

⁵ to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as sons.

⁶ And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!"

⁷ Therefore you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.
